– ANNE GOLDEN, PRESIDENT AND CEO, THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF CANADA

“Bob is an amazing individual. He is a great connector, whether it be people to people or people to ideas. He has an amazing ability to communicate in both the spoken word and the written word. His innovative and creative thinking, combined with his high energy made him one of the most truly unique and effective people I have met. If you can only know one person in life – know Bob! If you can only make one call – call Bob. He is the go to person, the person with the answers and the one who will get it done. A “one of a kind”.
